HAVANA

PAN AM

CLASSIC MOJITO

£7.95
How Cuba gets its mojo. Bacardi Carta Blanca rum, mint, lime, sugar and soda. As fresh as it gets.

Overheard an argument during a game of dominoes about whether Mojito's were the work of Sir Francis Drake, Ernest Hemingway, or travellers from further shores. Still not quite sure where it came from but I know that la Bodeguita del Medio is in the centre of Old Havana.

PIÑA COLADA

£9.65
The national drink of Puerto Rico, and with good reason. Pineapple liqueur blended with original recipe Don Q Añejo rum, lime, milk and creamy coconut.

PAINKILLER

£8.95
Pusser's Gunpowder Proof rum shaken with pineapple, orange and coconut. Dusted with cinnamon and set on fire in true tiki fashion.

Hopped on a ferry from Saint Thomas to an island called Jost Van Dyke (note that the ferry doesn't run on Thursdays), there's a bar called the Soggy Dollar which is incredible not only because it is where the Painkiller was invented, but it only has 6 chairs.

ZACAPA OLD FASHIONED

£10.50
A rich and deeply flavoured Guatemalan rum, Ron Zacapa 23 slowly stirred with bitters and brown sugar. An extraordinary, velvety indulgence.

DARK 'N STORMY®

£8.25
Gosling's Black Seal rum floated atop Old Jamaica ginger beer and a little lime. The spirit is added last, that's when you'll see how this tempestuous drink gets its name.

ZOMBIE

£9.75
A timeless tiki classic. Donn Beach kept his recipe a secret and so do we. Our own mysterious Zombie mix with tropical juices, lime, sugar and added fire.

DAIQUIRI

£7.95
All hail the Cuban trinity. Bacardi Carta Blanca rum, lime and sugar, served with elegance. Simply iconic.

Sipping a classic daiquiri in a tiny bar that oozes fading glamour, I learnt this bar was actually a world-renowned cocktail bar called El Floridita. The cantinero (Spanish for bartender) informed me it was the birthplace of the daiquiri and opened over 200 years ago!

Not to be confused with an ordinary rum and Coke, if you try to convince a bar tender in Havana that these are the same you may get chased down the Paseo del Prado.

CUBA LIBRE

£8.75
A Cuban classic since 1900, when Havana's most adventurous barman added a tasty new American sodato to his precious rum. We serve ours with Bacardi Añejo Cuatro rum, freshly squeezed lime and Coca-Cola Zero.

SHARERS

01588

The Rum Store

THE RUM STORY

Rum is more than a spirit, it embodies a way of life. Whether you're drinking it in a shack in Montego Bay or a bar in Manchester, you are experiencing an important part of our global history. A culture of travel, exploration and passion, passed down through generations of families.

From its use in religious ceremonies in the Caribbean to rationed tots for British sailors on the high seas, no other spirit has such a rich and varied history.

And so many stories to tell.
