FAST FASHIONED

£8.50

You've always wanted an Old Fashioned but never fancied the wait. Ours comes in 60 seconds flat - Havana Club 7 Year Old rum stirred with brown sugar and your choice of bitters.

DID YOU KNOW?

During prohibition, Americans would fly all the way to Cuba in order to get their party fix, quenching their thirst with the island's rum and cocktails. In fact, Havana became such a party destination, that in the 1920s there were an estimated 7,000 bars in Havana!

CARTER

DARK 'N' STORMY®

£8.25

Gosling's Black Seal rum floated atop Old Jamaica ginger beer and a little lime. The spirit is added last, that's when you'll see how this tempestuous drink gets its name.

ZOMBIE

£9.50

Our hidden combination of three Havana Club rums shaken with tropical fruits, lime and sugar, finished with a little fire courtesy of Wray & Nephew. A timeless tiki classic created by Donn Beach - he kept his recipe secret and so do we.

PIÑA COLADA

£9.25

Our tropical blend of rich coconut, tangy pineapple and Havana Club Añejo Especial rum. The national drink of Puerto Rico, and for good reason.

CUBA LIBRE

£8.25

Around since the 1900s, the story goes that soldiers in Havana persuaded a barman to mix his precious Havana Club Añejo Especial rum with lime and a tasty new American soda.

Today, we keep it simple. The same classic recipe but with Coca-Cola Zero.

DID YOU KNOW?

Amid Cuba's booming tourism trade, The Cuban Bartenders' Club was formed. Known to locals as the Club de Cantinero, it was the first national bartenders' guild anywhere in the world. Members would freely share expertise and knowledge, entering in competitions all over the world - and today, our very own Cantineros evoke the same spirit in every cocktail they make.

PAINKILLER

£8.95

Pusser's Gunpowder Proof rum shaken with pineapple, orange, coconut and lime.

We top it with a Wray & Nephew Overproof rum-filled passion fruit, dust it with cinnamon sugar and, in true tiki fashion, set the whole thing on fire.

DID YOU KNOW?

no. 02

Our new menu was inspired by Carteles, a Cuban pre-revolution lifestyle magazine founded in 1919. The magazine became iconic for its bold, art deco-style illustrated covers, designed by the famous Cuban artist Andrés García Benítez. His work, revealing his love of Cuba and its people, remains a defining moment in Cuban art history. On these pages, we pay homage to the beautiful covers he drew nearly a hundred years ago.

NO. 03

The great writer, Ernest Hemingway, made Cuba his home for over twenty years. In this time, he came to love the island, its culture and most importantly, its rum. He once said; "Don't bother with churches, government buildings or city squares. If you want to know about a culture, spend a night in its bars."

We've given Spain's signature summer punch a little Cuban flair. Our very own Bacardi Aventura rum shaken with lemon and sugar, topped with rich, fruity Merlot red wine.

Havana Club 3 Year Old rum poured over fresh pineapple, topped with Fever-Tree
Refreshingly Light tonic water.
Crisp and exquisite.

Bacardi Añejo Cuatro rum with mango, lime and passion fruit, spritzed with prosecco and soda. Modern, suave and super fresh, some say it's paradise in a glass.

Our original Mojito made with Havana
Club 3 Year Old
rum and raspberry purée. Seductively sweet with an intense berry burst.

Dead Man's Fingers
 hemp rum with Aperol, apricot liqueur and a
 blend of lemon, honey and lime. Sip, sip, pass.
